My Dear Mr. Fox: -

You requested me, and I promised to write you in relation to the appointment of Mrs. Harvey to the position we desired for her in the Mint. Will you kindly keep this matter in mind, and give her a place under your administration: for we have the promise from the friend of the present Administration of the general government, that if we have Mrs. H. placed in the Mint under you, she shall remain, in case you are superseded. Be kind enough to give Mrs. H. the position at as early a time as possible, and much oblige.

Yours Very Truly,
